Reviews

It is fantastic and great. It is written in easy words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just delighted to explain how this is actually the best book I have ever read through during my individual life and might be the finest publication for ever.

Excerpt from Mississippi Law Journal, Vol. 4: February, 1932 In Mississippi, municipal corporations are mere creatures of the legislative will. In the absence of constitutional limitations, the power of the legislature is absolute.9 Charters are granted or withdrawn at the will Of the legislature. Even the proper and perfect performance of the duties for which it was created will not prevent the withdrawal of its charter if the legislature so desires.10 In 1929, the Supreme Court in deciding that property within a municipality was subject to assessment for benefits by the drainage district, expressed the well established doctrine that the legislature has full control over municipal corporations, their powers and functions. 1 About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
