

Secret Deals (Paperback)

By George Hadjioannou

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . After fleeing Beirut as a teenager to avoid a nation rocked by civil war, George Hadjis built a successful South African shipping empire respected all over the world. With an internationally renowned financial empire and shipping offices all along the South African coast, George is at the pinnacle of life. However, when the South African government approaches him with an offer to smuggle oil, gold, and weapons, the allure of wealth and power and his survival instincts draw George into a dangerous world of international subterfuge. After surviving some of the hottest and most exciting smuggling deals of his life, George settles in the United States with the intent to leave any excitement behind. But once again, George is forced to answer government's call when the United States asks him to negotiate a peace treaty in his homeland. With a newfound cause that's close to his heart, George must accomplish his harrowing mission in order to bring a peace to his homeland that has been absent for decades. Set in the world's hottest locales where sex, romance, and war...
