EXPRESSION IN SPEECH AND WRITING (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This small volume has a chapter on Oral Composition, one on Written Composition, and one on Verse Making, on Original Music, on the Rendering of Poetry. It closes with an appendix on the Expression of Arithmetical reasoning. The chapter on Oral Composition opens by calling attention to the difference in the present day attitude towards children. When the writer and many others of us who can remember, were young, the favorite maxim was that little children should be seen and not heard. The story is told of one school inspector, who used to test the discipline of the school by dropping a pin on the desk. If he heard the pin drop, the discipline of the school was good. Now, we are coming to hold with the poet, who says: God s mercy is upon the young, God s wisdom in the baby tongue, That fears not anything. Our readiest means of self-expression and self-development is in our speech. Education, therefore, which means development, is greatly concerned with speech as one of our highest functions. Only recently has the importance of speech in children been recognized. It has long been understood that children must learn to write, because among a nation of shopkeepers, writing made them useful to their employers. It was not recognized that even from a money making point of view ill-educated labor-slave labor, was wasteful and uneconomic. This fact is now known by the employers of labor, and the present educational activity in Great Britain and elsewhere is the result. We are coming to understand what was not known formerly, that speech training is the readiest means to expression in writing. It contributes most of all the...
