With otherworldly evil hunting her, Alyssa is forced to face her unbelievable reality and embrace the power that is building within her. As much as she tries to resist the connection pulling her toward the stunning warrior, she finds herself falling for him. But could her love for him be the very thing that kills him? Michael is charged with seeking out the heir to the throne and bringing her back to Xalanthia. His mission becomes entangled with complications as his emotions for the beautiful heiress threaten to bring out the darkness within him, putting everyone, including the woman he loves, in grave danger.
