Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Theoretical Depreciation: A Menace to the Public and the Investor The most serious menace to which investors in the securities of public service corporations are exposed to-day results from their failure to comprehend and to combat unsound and destructive theories of valuation, which, when employed in the determination of the value of their properties for purposes of rate regulation, operate to confiscate a very substantial percentage of their investment. The term confiscate is used advisedly. If an investor has expended, for example, $100,000 in plant and equipment devoted to the public service and has rendered service therewith for a number of years at legal rates, yielding a legitimate return upon his investment and nothing more, and has collected from his patrons nothing representing a return to him of his investment or any part of it, and if his property is then appraised and, as the result of the method employed, is found to have a present value of say $70,000 and the rates he is permitted to charge are adjusted so as to yield a return on only $70,000, then his investment, to the extent of $30,000, has been confiscated. When it is considered to what extent owners of property are protected by federal and state constitutions, federal, state and municipal laws, municipal and police regulation and a vast legal machinery, against the confiscation, expropriation, seizure or theft of their property and by what simple means these agencies of protection may be invoked in behalf of the individual or corporation, it is amazing to observe the extent to which property is confiscated under the guise of rate regulation, with hardly a protest being raised by...
