Harmless Creature- Detective Wilson Parker was a detective at the Mayville Police Department. And usually, the cases that came his way were typical cases for a small town, until one day, he got a case that was not so typical. It was a murder case, but it was a murder case he had never seen before in his entire career as a police officer first, and then a police detective. For this wasn t just one murder, it was a series of murders with gruesome results. Victims had been found with huge bites taken out of them. Some were even missing body parts. But Wilson thought they had to be animal attacks, because only animals would make bite marks like the ones in the photos, and animals have been known to take off body parts as well. However, the bite marks were much bigger than those that could be from any animals in the forests around Mayville. No, whatever.or whoever.murdered these people.wasn t any kind of animal. As he takes on the case and goes deeper and deeper into the investigation, he finds out that there s something living in the quaint little town of Mayville that he would ve never believed existed. Something that he thought was just in myths and fictional stories. And they might be a serial killer. Rise of the Living Dead- Detective Wilson Parker is now deep into the investigation of the series of murders that have been happening in the small town of Mayville, and he is now determined to prove that someone else other than his current house guest - Aria - is not behind those murders. But...
